Guidelines for charge of equity holders for various companies

776. SHRI SATISH AGARWAL: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) what are the guidelines/policy to allow change of equity holders for various companies, who have been issued letters of intent and/or licences for Cellular, Mobile and Basic Telephone Services;

(b) what was the equity ratio of the consortium partners of various companies at the time of bidding for Cellular, Mobile and Basic Telephone Services; and

(c) what is the equity ratio with names of various Consortium partners as on the, 30th June, 1997 for various companies who have been issued letters of intent/ licence for Cellular, Mobile and Basic Telephone Services?

THE MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI BENI PRASAD VARMA): (a) For Basic Telephone services, the change in the equity structure of the bidding companies is permissible subject to the condition that:—

(i) The Shareholding of a foreign promoter whose networth or experience or both have been taken into consideration for determining the eligibility of the bidder company, must continue to have a shareholding of not less than 10% for at least five years from the date of issue of licence.

(ii) the shareholding of an Indian promoter must continue to be not less 10% or the holding at the time of bidding, whichever is lower for the first five years from the date of issue of licence; and

(iii) also that monopoly conditions do not develop.

For Cellular Mobile Telephone Services, conditions (i) & (ii) above are imposed for period of 3 years only. Further, for Cellular Mobile Telephone Services, the criteria for change of Indian and foreign promoters followed by the Department of Telecom is as follows:—

(i) The changes of Indian promoters/partners have been permitted where the new promoters/ partners, holding substantial stake were either subsidiaries of the original promoters or group companies mentioned in the bid documents.

(ii) The cases of change of foreign partners not covered under tender/ licence conditions are also considered on recept of applications from the licensee companies duly supported by relevant documents. The new foreign partner proposed to be inducted most satisfy all the criteria taken into consideration for grant of licences.

(b) and (c) The equity ratio of the consortium partners at the time of bidding and as on 30.6.97, as per DoT records in the companies holding licences and/or letter of intent for Cellular Mobile Telephone Service are given for
